QRIOCIITY

QRioCity is a city exploration game for anyone who wants to experience a city in an engaging way. It offers personalized tours to discover the local scene in a unique way for any group size.

How does it work?

Choose your preferred tour type at our public display or start on the website at www.qriocity.pt. After scanning the QR code of the display you can begin the game split in multiple groups or as one. The game takes you through the city to explore different places with tasks and questions to complete. Find the QR codes hidden throughout the city and earn points by mastering the task. Earn the most points to beat your components and WIN PRIZES!
